ticket will receive many thousands more votes than the Republican ticket.

"After a careful look through the election system of Onio, after going over the organization of our party and looking fairly into the organization of the opposition party, I do not believe that any wrong can be successfully brought about. All the Democrats have to do is to be careful, watch the votes cast, see them counted after they are cast; see them counted after they are cast; see the returns properly made and slated, shutting out all opportunities to substitute a Hanna ballot for a Democratic one, and victory is ours.

"I say this without qualification, without reserve. Hanna is beaten."

Tammany Will Sweep New York On

Tammany Will Sweep New York On Tuesday.

New York, Nov. 5.—Richard Croker says that the Tammany district leaders are increasing their estimates of the Democratic majorities. He claims 50,000 or more plurality in New York county. Te Republicans claim a small plurality on the county ticket. In the campaign the alleged purpose of the Republicans to amend the New York charter so as to give Albany more power over affairs in this city has been taken up by Tammany, which expects to win several districts in this city with the 'bone rule' cry. The general opinion is that the Democrats will gain half a dozen sents. Except for the votes of the independent labor men, the fusion county campaign has lagged, the bad blood engendered by the fights between Republicans and citizens union in the assembly district, where Robert Maret (Rep.), is up for re-election, Tammany has made one of the hottest campaigns over wased in New York City.

Nicaragua and Costa Rica Dispute Over Boundary.

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 16 .- A serous cause of trouble between Nicara-gua and Costa Rica has developed in gua and Costa Rica has developed in the determining and making of the boundary between the two states. This government now claims that the decision of the arbitrator, President Grover Cleveland, as to the boundary line about Salinnse buy, on the Pacific, was made on untruthful statements, and, consequently, Nicuragua instead of being entitled to only two-sevenths of the northern part of the bay, is entitled to the entire bay. Nicaragua, therefore, has presented her case to General E. P. Alexander, the arbitrator agreed on to interpret the decisions of President Cleveland as to the boundary, and has requested him to annul and remodel that part of President Cleveland's decision.

REPRESENTED THE ATLIN DIS TRICT MINERS IN LONDON.

It Is Declared That England Fearing a War In the Far East Is Very Anxious to Have a Harbor In Alaska, Which Is Basis of Her Alaskan Boundary Demands.

New York, Nov. 5.—Ex-Congressman James H. Lewis of Seattle, Wash., who went to England to look after the interests of the Atlin miners in the settle-ment of the Alaskan boundary ques-tion, returned on the St. Paul today. Mr. Lewis said in regard to his mis

Mr. Lewis said in regard to his mission;

"I was present during the consideration of the Alaskan question in London, I did not go there officially, however, but simply as a representative of the owners of disputed property within the boundary. I was informed by no less a person than Sir Louis Davies of Canada, who was in consultation with Messre Choate and Chamberlain, at the conclusion of an interview, that on behalf of his government he made an offer to take the question up and arbitrate on the same terms which the United States impressed upon England in the Venezuelan matter.

"It is understood that Mr. Choate could not accept this basis of settlement. Mr. Davies told me that he assured Mr. Choate that Canada would cede Skagway and Dyea absolutely and without claim, though in the disputed territory, in return for Pyramid harbor, the remainder of the dispute to be settled on the basis of the Venezuelan arbitration. This proposition was pending when the temporary modus was agreed upon if Washington.

"My objection to this modus is that it accords to Canada all the privileges in the Porcupine mining district, which are allowed to Americans. Being American territory, this course is opposed to the one Canada has pursued by a late executive act prohibiting any mining rights taken up by us in the Atlin district.

"I pointed out to the house a year ago that there was a misconception as to what was meant by a boundary line in a Russian deed and an English grant. The Russian boundary, where it touches water, circles the water side and follows the course of either low-land or mountains. This gives us all the water ports in the disputed territory.

the water ports in the disputed territory.

"With the new arrangements, the line is drawn horizontally from mountain top to mountain top. Water peris between these mountain tops are considered and taken to be property of Canada wherever the water extends across the line.

"In this way Canada enjoys one part of the water and we the other. What impressed me was that Canada was willing to abandon and yield the disputed territory for a water pert. England sees ahead a war in the east, and so she wants a naval mustering station in Alaska."

The heaviest isomers are Jones Brothers, who estimate their stock, which was totally destroyed, as worth $500,000. The insurance carried by this firm amounted to $2 per cent of the loss. If was the most destructive fire that has ever visited the up-town business districts. The other heavy losses: Jones building, 551-561 Main street, owned by W. C. Lobenstein, New York, $50,000. Within twenty minutes the entire six stories were a mass of flames and burning embers were being carried by a stiff breeze in all directions. Twenty minutes later part of the front wall fell with a terrific crash and within a short time the wall tottered and fell, crashing into the Humbolt building, a five story structure across Sixth street, carrying down part of the latter building. In a little more than an hour after the fire started, the Jones stock was entirely destroyed and nothing was left of its building but the foundation.

In the meantime the fire had spread south to the Humboit building, and fiving embers had caught the old St. James hotel, four stories in height, half a block north on Walnut, the next street east. The hotel was partially saved but the walls are building on the farrich ory goods company was saved, and the building occupied by the Enrich Day Goods company was saved, and the building occupied b

At present the railroad occupies only fifty feet on each side of its track. Many business blocks, warehouses and residences have been constructed within the 200-foot level, and the railway seems to clear its right of way of all improvements, laying claim to the same. portant decisions were named nown in the state supreme court here today as follows:

In the case of Lewis Johnson against the state the court granted the application of the plaintiff for a new trial on the grounds that certain testimony had not been admitted in the trial of the case of the state against Johnson in the Sweetwater county court. Johnson was charged with the murder of Willie Strang at a ranch north of the Brown's Park country in northern Colorado and southern Wyoming. Before death young Strang said: "Johnson shot me, but he did not mean to do it." It was this testimony that was not admitted at the trial of Johnson and the supreme court orders that Johnson now be given a new trial.

In the case of Ramsay against Johnson, from Rock Springs, the court denied the application for a re-hearing. The court also handed down an opinion which in effect is that a district judge shall not have the right to give permission to file a bill of exceptions except while sitting as a court. The matter came from Judge Stott's district in northeastern Wyoming. Colenso, Nov. 2, 2 p. m. Minn., Nov. 5.—The angual report of the Great Northern railway shows a total trackage in the system of 5.50 miles, an increase of 250 miles since the last report. The reduction of wheat rates or account of the opening of the new Fosston & Dainth fine amounted to a little over $55,000, the average reduction amounting to 15 cents per bushel, which went to the profit of the farmer. There was a general reduction in all rates, but the increase in business was sufficient to carry the total earnings of the fiscal year to nearly $2,00,000 in excess of last year, most of which was used in the betterment of the line. Nothing, perhaps, better illustrates the growth of the territory traversed by the road than the increase in the amount of mail excriding which exceeds by 50 per cent the total earnings and weight of four years ago.
